

ABR 75/25 Volatility Fund

Institutional Class: VOLSX
Investor Class: VOLJX

Target: Seeks long-term capital appreciation

Use for: Liquid alternative investment; long and short volatility exposure

Dynamic Allocation

Seeks to generate favorable long-term risk-adjusted returns, in part, by profiting from price changes involving instruments that track volatility levels. Relies principally on models to determine allocations among (i) long exposure to CBOE Volatility Index ("VIX Index") futures and VIX Index exchange-traded products ("ETPs"); (ii) short exposure to VIX Index futures and VIX Index ETPs; (iii) long exposure to S&P 500 Index futures and S&P 500 Index ETPs; (iv) long exposure to long-term U.S. Treasury securities, and (v) cash.

Objective

Long-term capital appreciation

AVERAGE PORTFOLIO EXPOSURE (%)¹

¹Portfolio composition was determined each day using end-of-day NAV and the closing prices of each holding. The daily values of each Exposure category were then averaged from 7/1/2021 through 9/30/2021.

²Includes money market fund, income/expense accruals and receivables/payables.

Returns represent past performance and do not guarantee future results. Investment return and principal value will fluctuate so that an investor's shares, when redeemed, may be worth more or less than their original cost. Mutual fund performance changes over time and currently may be significantly lower than stated above. For the most recent month-end performance, please call 855-422-4518.

³The Adviser has contractually agreed to waive fees and/or reimburse expenses until November 30, 2022.

Risk Disclosure

The return on and value of an investment in the mutual fund will fluctuate in response to market movements. Investments are subject to market risks, such as rapid increase or decrease in an investment value or liquidity, fluctuations in price due to economic conditions and other factors beyond the control of the Adviser.

As with any mutual fund, there are risks involved with investing in the ABR 75/25 Volatility Fund (the Fund), including the possible loss of principal. The Fund may have investments that appreciate or decrease significantly in value over short periods of time, which may cause the Fund's net asset value per share to experience significant increases or declines over short periods of time. The loss on a short sale theoretically is unlimited since the appreciation of the shorted asset also is theoretically unlimited. The Fund may have to raise cash to meet variation margin requirements on its futures contract holdings; if the Fund has insufficient cash, it may have to sell investments at a time when it might be disadvantageous to do so. Other risks specific to the Fund are detailed in the prospectus. The Fund is non-diversified, and fluctuations in individual holdings will have a greater impact on the Fund's performance.

Standard Deviation is a historical measure of volatility; a higher number indicates greater volatility. Sharpe Ratio is a risk-adjusted measure calculated by using standard deviation and excess return to determine reward per unit of risk. The higher the Sharpe Ratio, the better the fund's historical risk adjusted performance. A variation of the Sharpe Ratio is the Sortino Ratio, which removes the effects of upward price movements to measure only return against downward price volatility. The CBOE Volatility Index measures the expected volatility of the S&P 500 Index. The S&P 500 Index is a market value-weighted index representing the performance of 500 widely held, publicly traded large capitalization companies. The FTSE 3-Month U.S T-Bill Index is an unmanaged index representing monthly return equivalents of yield averages of the last 3-month Treasury Bill issues. All returns reflect reinvested dividends and capital gains distributions. One cannot invest directly in an index.
